Chapter 1 by Alex Clay

Rick looked painfully down at his bloody hands. The blood seemed to be stained, after he washed his hands over and over. If all the times he washed his hands were shots, he'd have a few bottles. He sighed.

"What ya gonna do about it?" He asked himself, laughing slightly. He sighed, again as he stepped away from the sink. He thought he was home alone, until someone turned on the lights for the dark room.

"Rick? What's going- WHY ARE YOUR HANDS BLOODY, RICK?" Jerry shouted, stepping away immediately to protect himself.

"S-Shut up, Jerry. Don't you have somewhere to be doing your b-boring, Jerry stuff?" Rick replied, trying to keep a cool and calm domineer

"Rick! There's blood everywhere- Where's Morty!? What did you do to my son!"

"Jerry, s-shut up! I'll handle it! S-Seriously, who else is even home?"

Jerry opened his mouth to respond but was harshly cut off by an armored hand seizing his neck and jerking him out of sight. There were fighting sounds only for a brief bit before a slender, armored woman appeared the doorway, her hands now covered in blood. She cracked her knuckles, her gaze locked on Rick now.
